SPIRIT was the name of the game this year. athletics, organizations, and academics have really pepped up. students are becoming more involved in the school and students are what make west high what it is.

'73-'74 has been a triumphant year for the falcons, one that all of us should remember because we are a part of the SPIRIT of '74.

after all the expense of each girl buying a dress and each guy renting a tux, buying a corsage, and paying for dinner for the junior senior, everyone's SPIRIT was lifted when they received their $5.60 back from undeveloped pictures.

happy yet sad

awards assembly and graduation always seem sad somehow. wonder why the SPIRIT is so low? people are getting awards and seniors are getting out. shouldn't they be happy? it's just something sentimental. last year, seniors like joyce holbert, sharon allen, alvin morrow, jane watts, tom robertson, bobby smith, debbie dunlap, bruce bradley, linda holt, and peggy wright received recognition which made their graduation extra special.

a rock festival on stage — ridiculous

but it happened. big rock at candy's mountain was only one of the four plays that was presented by the english department. under the direction of mrs. o'shields much talent was displayed. the main characters were: jeff medford as adam garrison, debbie dalton as eunice webb, mike gaffigan as zippity dewdar, cathy norton as candy weaver, phyliss allen as myra mobile, debra mcgraw and linda holbert as aunt patience and aunt charity.

black water

have you heard the boss group, who plays the boss sounds, from the boss lists, that their boss tells them to play? well, they're really boss! the group is called blackwater and was formed early in the year by jack hill. the lead guitarist is warren orr, dennis dunlap handles the bass, and bryan baker takes care of the drums. every now and then, when we're lucky, gregg parrish will sing for us. it's just boss the way he sings "tuitie fruitie".

they finally did it! this year's senior class won the powder puff game! (with a little help from some sophomores). for three years that class has been playin' and losin', playin' and losin', playin' and losin'. guess they finally got the SPIRIT and beat the opposition by a score of 16-6.

on that same festive day, a bunch of grits appeared on the scene. between motorcycle freaks and snaggle-toothed hags this place was quite a sight.

and oh, we can't forget michelle ruff! (it's hard to miss something that big.) she was our illustrious queen.

horse that is!

when everything calmed down after the horse went running through the band, charlotte cochrane was crowned homecoming queen. this year homecoming had a new look. the court wore outfits with long skirts. the horse wasn't the only thing that ran away. the falcons beat tryon by a score of 20-6. that's the SPIRIT falcons!

her majesty and court

the queen of the 1974 homecoming court is miss charlotte cochrane. her shyness and gentle personality captured the approval of the student body. she was crowned amid the excitement of one of the most SPIRIT-ed homecoming ever.

other members of the senior homecoming court were: patti ehlers, kathy orr, and marcia blythe.

junior representatives were: rose smith, sherri case, and jenni allen.

sophomore homecoming representatives were rita young and lori keicher.

pep rallies

the falcon plane called the SPIRIT of '74, blasted off every friday afternoon during the enthusiastic packed pep rallies. led by no. 1 cheerleaders, the no. 1 teams were saluted and recognized by the student body. all added to the power-packed pep rallies.

assemblies!!!

every friday we hear, "please remain in your homeroom until you are told to report to the auditorium." many times the purpose of this was for an assembly. music, comedy, and education were some of the varying topics. these were followed by pep rallies where everyone had a chance to show their SPIRIT.

a world away

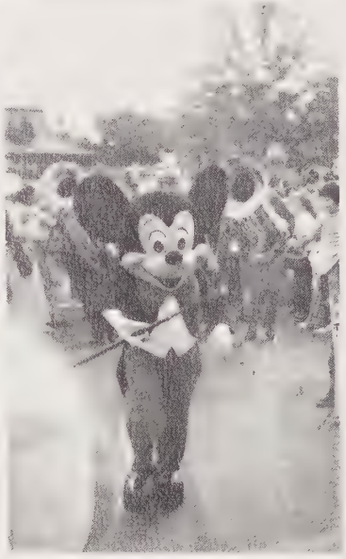
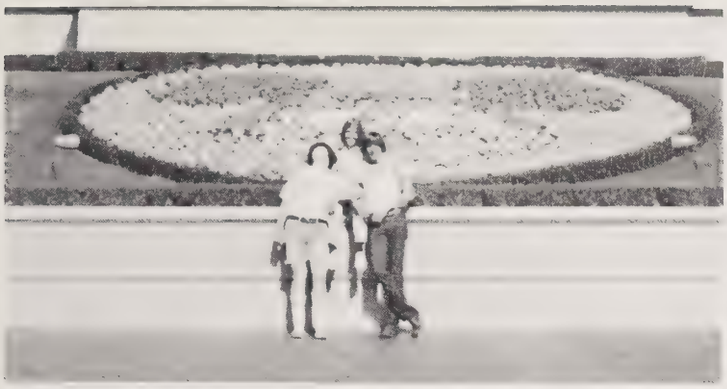
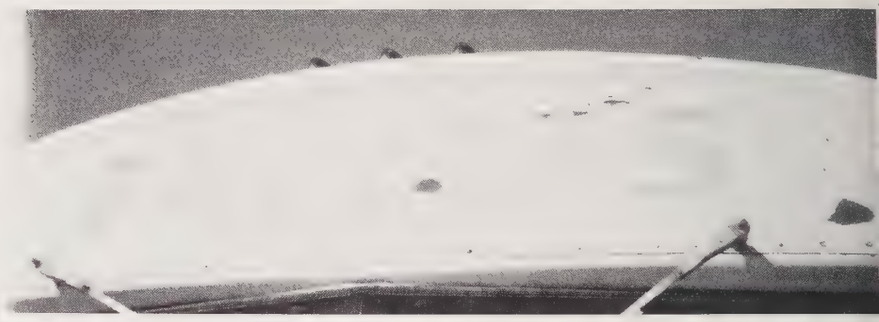
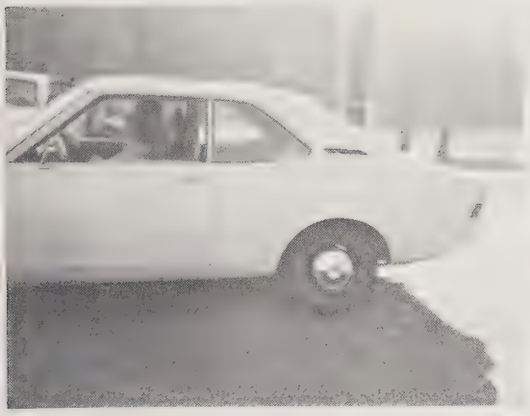
on november 20, 63 members of the senior class left for florida, with norman link and burney drake as chaperones. they took in such sights as disney world, cypress gardens, marineland, st. augustine and cape kennedy. it was a little education mingled with a lot of fun and SPIRIT.

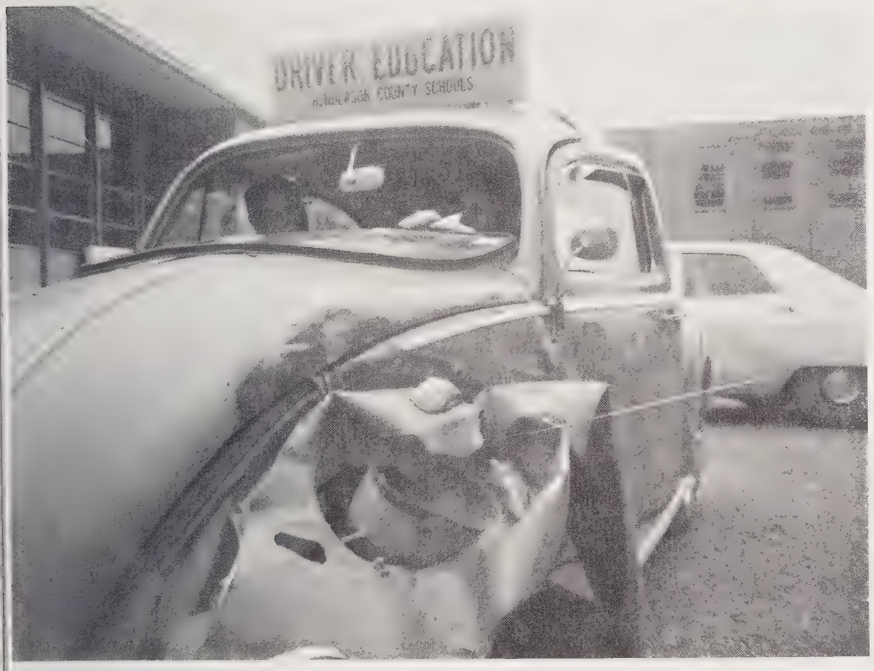






arriving at school safely shouldn't be taken for granted . . .





. . . there are those who are thankful just to arrive.

the newspaper staff probably has one of the hardest working staffs in the school and the staff that has the hardest time. but then again look who's feature editor - he can always add some SPIRIT to the situation. the sole purpose of the newspaper staff is to put out a newspaper with only the funds they can raise themselves. they do a fantastic job getting the paper out even if they do remain in debt.

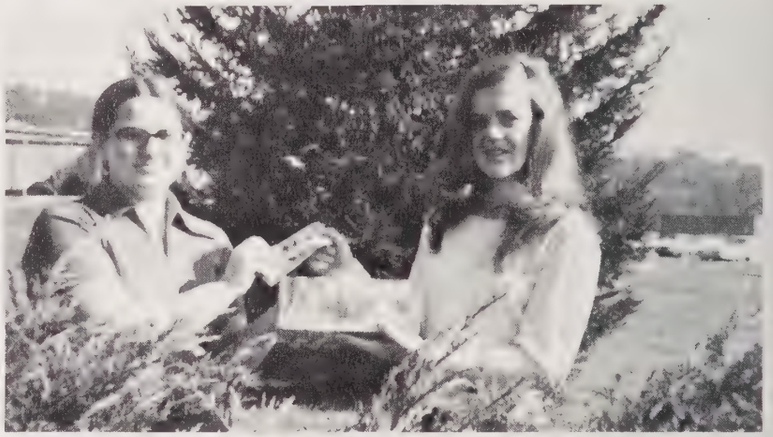
write on! write on! on that stationery you sold everyone. and eat some fruitcake while you are at it! these were the big money-making projects for the business club. mrs. mcdaniel, mrs. graham, and mrs. coggins have shown their SPIRIT by leading their club members in these projects. visits to blue ridge technical institute and having speakers affiliated with business at their meetings have better acquainted the club members with the business world.

the club officers are as follows: president - lee ann stepp; vice-president - velvie buie; secretary - patty carland; treasurer - linda revis; reporter - linda best.



beta club stands for intelligence. would you believe it by looking at this group? seriously, the purpose of beta club is to recognize scholatic achievement; it also provides a service for others. they plan to raise money for a scholarship to help a senior further his education.

officers are: president, donna palmer; vice-president, deborah mccraw; secretary, sharon wyatt. beta club sponsor is mrs. janet h. stakias.

health careers

wanna play doctor? well, that's not exactly the main purpose of the health careers club. actually, they have been very active this year with many projects, such as assisting in college day, participating in the western north carolina health careers congress, and the pardee hospital candy stripers program. they also plan to award a scholarship to a west high senior who is interested in medicine. the officers are: president, diane black; vice-president, shirley finley; secretary, marsha galloway; treasurer, susan bell; historian, debbie dalton. the sponsor of health careers: miss heil.

activities for the french club this year ranged from chasing the gardener all over the biltmore forest to attending county meetings in hendersonville. the club is growing along with l'e SPIRIT of '74. the officers are: president, debbie robertson; vice-president, kathy worsham; treasurer, debbie pearson. the sponsor of the french club is mrs. phyllis driver.

future homemakers of america

how many people saw gary waddell running around in that little red suit at christmas time? ho! ho! ho! he was part of f.h.a.'s "operation santa claus." f.h.a. displayed a different kind of school SPIRIT by winning first prize for their fair booth at the county fair. the entire club has really worked well together, but three special people deserve some special recognition. janis dalton for serving as county historian this year. patty carland who was sent to the national f.h.a. convention, and of course mrs. barker, their sponsor!

officers are as follows: president, patty carland; vice-president, sharon wyatt; secretary, bonnie collins; treasurer, darlene rogers; chaplin, janet nesbitt; historian, marcia shipman; parliamentarian, peggy wilson; projects chairman, jane talley; program chairmen, kathy goforth and kathy rector.

library science

who could make it through a day of school without buying a cup of orange tang and a fresh do-nut from the school library? probably no one because there are a lot of those "can't eat breakfast --gotta run" students at west high. the orange tang and do-nuts really pep up your SPIRIT for the day ahead. through the selling of do-nuts and orange tang and from the canned food dance sponsored by library science, they hope to accomplish as they have set out to do--carpet the school library. the officers of the club are as follows: president, lois shipman; vice-president, donna henderson; due to the resignation of christine jackman, marilyn edney was elected secretary and treasurer; reporter, hank laughter.

bible class

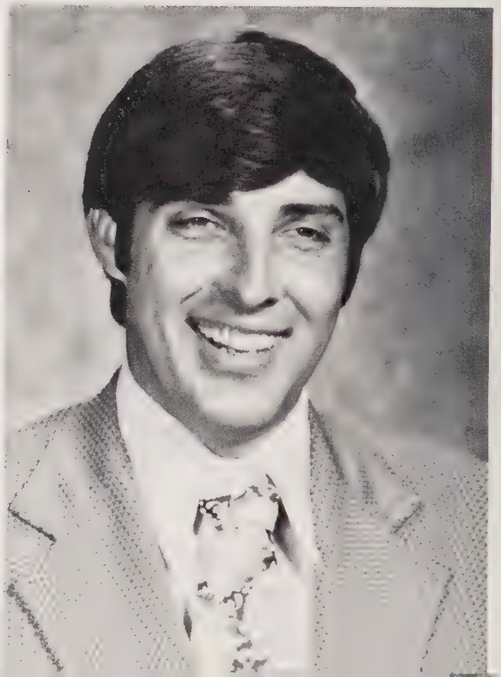
this year the student body had the privilege of listening to a group called the "brotherhood" through the good work of the rev. jimmy cox and the bible class. they have also had various christian singing groups to attend the school and have shown movies in the auditorium. the "soul" purpose of the club is to advance your christian SPIRIT as well as your school SPIRIT. they plan to take a trip to old salem, the baptist orphanage, and attend the easter sunrise service in april. the bible club sponsor is rev. jimmy cox, the school chaplain.



monogram means letter and that's what you have to do to become a member of the monogram club - letter in a school sport or activity. this year the monogram club's main project was the ordering of letter jackets and sweaters. each person's weight and height were taken and upon return of the order you could purchase your jacket for $24.50 and sweater for $15.00. the students who have the opportunity to wear them proudly know they were a part of the spark that created the fire for the SPIRIT of '74.

ecology club

did anyone notice how the grass was trimmed around the buildings this fall? we bet you didn't, but the ecology club realized this is something that would improve the school's appearance. along with an overall clean-up of the campus, they also held an ecology poster contest. trips were made to pisgah national forest, water and sewage treatment plants, and a dairy farm. under the leadership of marcelle dryman and mr. ballard the club has certainly provided service and further knowledge about ecology in our community.

women's lib struck west this year and the ffa took a few female members into the club to assist with such activities as winning 1st place in the ffa fair booth, and working with the soil judging team to win 1st place in the federation. the club has aided in the beautification of the campus by planting flowers and shrubs around the school and building a nature trail and pond. the officers are: president, godfrey soukup; vice-president, tim merrill; secretary, leonard capps; treasurer, bobby garren; centennial, franklin ray; reporter, frankie maxwell; sponsor, mr. francis.

f.f.a. (future farmers of america)

did your mother ever tell you where annuals come from? well it dates back many years when man was searching for wisdom and felt the need to remember the past at t.p. temple academy of higher learning . . .

"aaah garasshaappa, we must alvays rememba oua past in arda to live in the futcha." "but masta, i do nat undastond. we hav all these tuels which we must use to put it togetha with. i almost cammit harikari tharee times with this abject you call a craapa-dinga, ond you taal me to be unefarm ond consistant. taall me masta, you putting me an?" "garasshaappa, when you finish, you will hav lerned a gareat wisdam - a berd an the hond make a beeg mess, but a terrifik anual stoff, make a far-aut anual!" seriously folks, it does take a great staff to put together a book the entire student body can be proud of. this year the staff is composed of: editor, debbie davis; copy editor, laura cable; art editor, teresa holbert; photographer, dale armstrong; introduction, patti ehlers; school life, marcia higgins and elizabeth souther; curriculum, donna ward and diana huntsinger; activities, marcia blythe and phyllis allen; sports, jimmy pressley and debbie robertson; advertisements, velvie buie and lydia cantrell; senior class, jan dalton and shelley eakes; junior class, jane talley; and sophomore class, arthur ward. the sponsor of the annual staff: mrs. june b. mcdaniel.

and the winner is karen l. smith

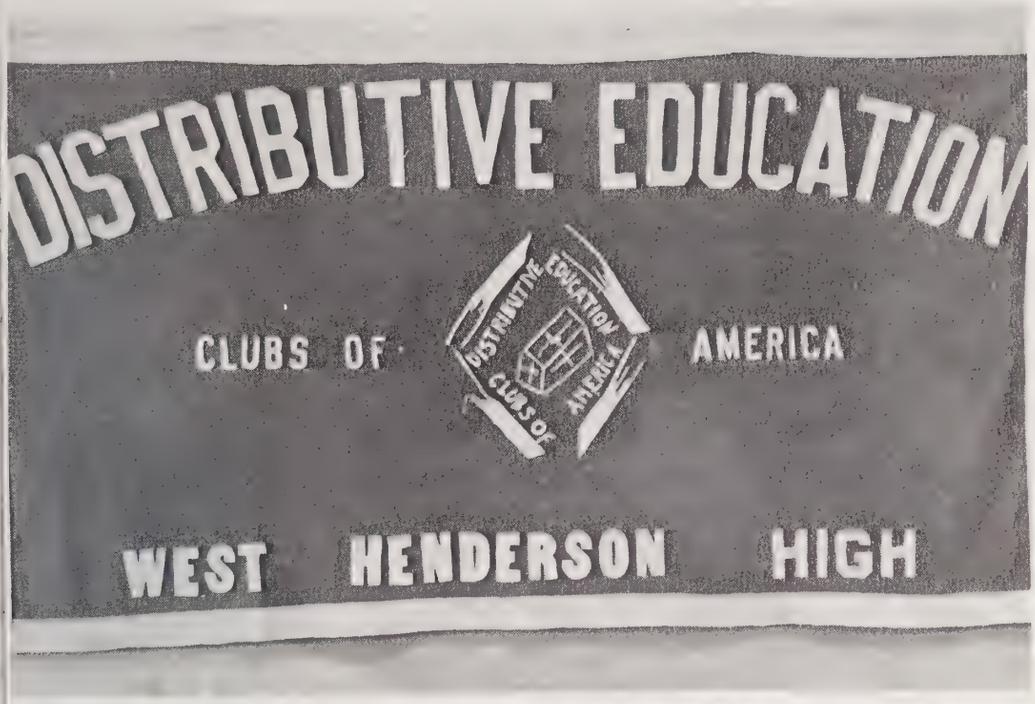
this year the art club raffled off a television set and sold posters to make money to buy needed supplies. they keep up their school SPIRIT by keeping a frequently changing bulletin board and by representing the school in various are contests. officers are: president, teresa holbert; vice-president, janice handley; secretary, cindy hoots; treasurer, miss odom; and reporters, judy ashe and loyd elder.



what in the world is a dlc? could it be a damaged library card? or could it be a damaged lincoln continental? no! of course not. it is the district leadership conference attended by some deca members this year. deca has a lot to be proud of. along with selling those precious little candles and sprucy christmas trees, they got community SPIRIT-ed and sponsored a marketing survey. this involved getting the consumer's opinion on stores in our community. deca also has a very SPIRITed leader, miss kathy vaughn, who became district deca president of western north carolina. what more could you ask than to have sponsor mr. jim barbour break the monotony with his guitar? the club officers are as follows: kathy vaughn, president; chuck freeman, vice-president; cheryl gordon, secretary; don bonner, treasurer; susan allison, historian; chris jackman and joe bonner, social chairman; jessie lanning, sargeant at arms; sheila youngblood, d.e.i. representative; kenny allison, marketing representative.

the key club has really boomed this year! could part of that be contributed to their SPIRITed sponsor mr. jarvis? or is the reason the new found dedication of the club's members? possibly it's a little of both. whatever the reason they have really been busy. clothing was collected for the needy. and who would have thought making money could be so easy as playing ping-pong? by spring, along with the keyettes and kiwanis the key club will be very involved with a project dealing with the handicapped.

officers are as follows: pat smith, president; tommy mcswain, senior vice-president; marty riddle, junior vice-president; doug dunlap, secretary; jimmy pressley, treasurer; dennis dunlap, sergeant-at-arms.

pep club — the SPIRITualists

"wanna buy a ribbon?" these were the favorite words of some of the pep club members who sold SPIRIT ribbons during basketball season. the club was the biggest ever with approximately sixty people paying dues at the beginning of the year. of course sponsor jim barbour may deserve some of that credit with his favorite line - "hey buddy, join the pep club - or else!"

the officers are as follows: captains, sherri case and gary waddell; co-captains, pat smith, kenny allison, and kathy brown; secretary-treasurer, marcia blythe.

fellowship of christian athletes

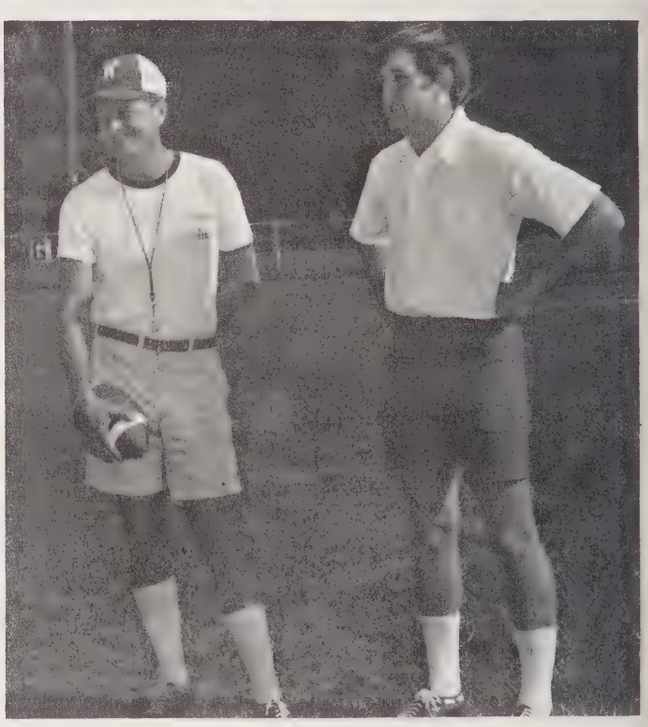
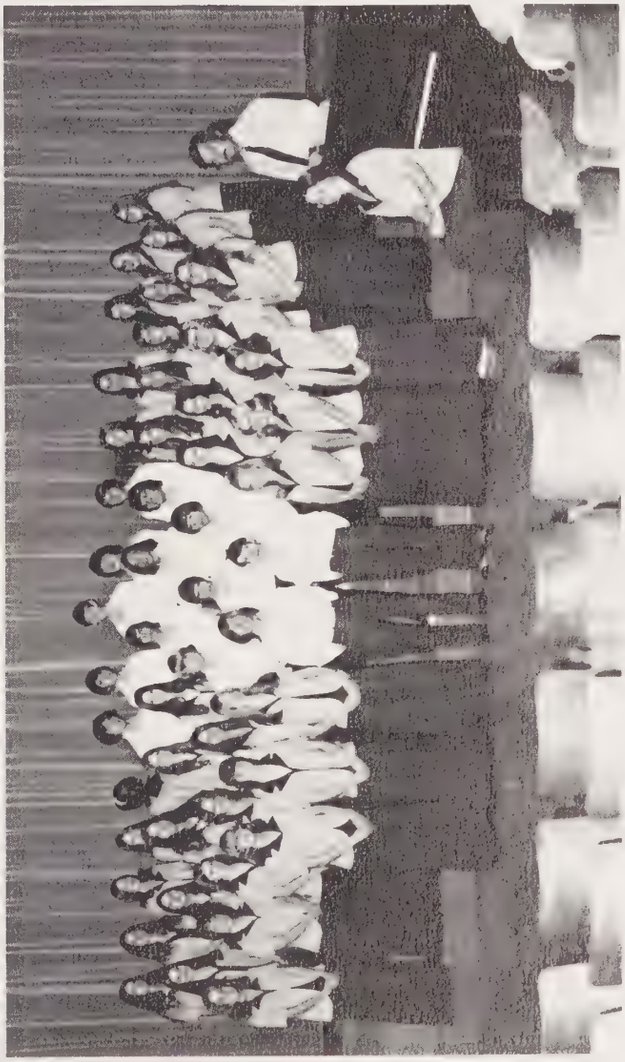
church support, prayer at home ball games, parties . . . these are some of the activities fca has engaged in this school year. the purpose of the club is to provide a place for athletes to go and have fellowship with fellow athletes and God. the officers are: president, jimmy pressley; vice-president, janet nesbitt; secretary, phyllis allen; treasurer, debbie robertson. sponsors for the club are coach ray berkley and coach burney drake.



"alto, soprano, tenor, bass. alto and tenor, tenor and soprano, tenor and bass, alto and soprano, alto and bass, soprano and bass. everybody from the beginning with the accompaniment. and this time put some SPIRIT in it!"

so it goes everyday in chorus.



chorus. . . sings along with bob

"stop! trumpets you came in a beat too early!" mr. edwards may get SPIRITed and yell a lot, but he sure knows how to direct a band. being in the band takes a lot of practice and hard work. not only during football season but even during the concert season. each individual is expected to do his part and we can be proud of the steady progress each person has made.

the officers are: president, dale armstrong; vice-president, steve martin; secretary, debbie mccraw; treasurer, resa martin.

class, may i have your attention please! today's lesson will be . . .
this year members of fta had the privilege of teaching their own classes. they attended some of the surrounding schools, observed and did some actual teaching themselves. under the leadership of their sponsor mrs. riggs and president jack hill the club has prospered a great deal in giving the students a further knowledge of the teaching profession.

inter-club council

"how can i go to three different club meetings in one float period?" this is a common problem of any active student at whs. this is one of the problems inter-club council strives to resolve. the council's main purpose is to write and produce harmony within the school's clubs. each club is represented by its president and each meeting is presided over by the student body president.

have you ever noticed those girls who wear little blue uniforms on thursdays? well, whether you realize it or not that same group that has those little blue uniforms is pictured here in their monday, tuesday, wednesday and friday clothes. no matter though, the keyettes always put a lot of SPIRIT in their projects like coat check for basketball games, college day, visits to older people, and joint projects with key club and kiwanis.

student council

". . . but mr. mcintyre . . ." this could have been part of one of those many conversations the student body president, gregg parrish, had with our principal. sometimes gregg may have lost but he and the other members of the student council never lost their SPIRIT and gave up. more assemblies, student directory, the juke box in the lunchroom, and the tennis courts are only a few of the projects the student council worked on.

work isn't all they did though. there were conventions too, which brought about some interesting things in the club this year.

officers are: president, gregg parrish; vice-president, phyllis allen; secretary, debbie robertson; and treasurer, doug dunlap. sponsor of the student council is mr. norman link.

1,2,3,4,-turn, 2,2,3,4, turn . . . this could have been one of the things going on in the minds of the members of the flag corp and majorettes during half-time of the football games this past fall. these girls have put in many hours after and during school to work out routines to perform with the band.

this year the flag corp consisted of teresa davenport, sherree ratliff, kathy rector, cindy brooks, sabrina ferguson, debbie pittillo, diane goode, nancy coward, carolyn cox, and debbie haynes, captain.

majorettes were cookie brittain, kay saunders, sandra hunnicutt, anitra jones, and jan hamilton, captain.

a man for all seasons

because of his long service (one of the original teachers), leadership, guidance, and complete dedication to the high ideals of west henderson high school, we proudly dedicate the 1974 falcon to mr. joe francis.

'73 track and field

it is a scientific fact that any six foot fellow can clear a three foot hurdle with little difficulty. however, lynn smith always seemed to knock them down and clear them clean off the track. but this didn't darken the SPIRIT of the track team, and they raced on. the highlight of the season occurred when the mile relay team, mark lenhart, jerry bagwell, ed gilliland, kevin finney, ran a mile for the state track meet.

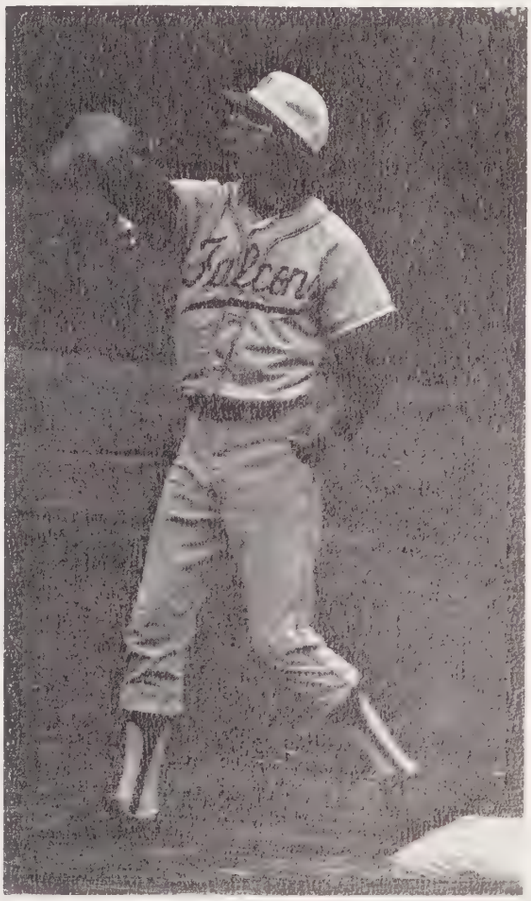
the throw down and the peg around like the track team, the baseball team also had a shortage of senior personnel. rocketing forward and putting aside all minor problems, the players went through another campaign and stand ready to go into another SPIRIT filled season.



"beast" marona is said to be the most SPIRITed golfer on the greens today. from tournaments in such places as black mountain and maggie valley, he and the 1972 - 73 golf team spread terror cross the country. under the steady hands of coach paul bagwell, the golf season went into full swing. golfers were as follows: dan howe, tony dalton, hank laughter, lloyd fowler, barron allison, wesley "beast" marona, tab haigler, and kevin roberts.

blue ridge conference champions is not just something you accomplish overnight. for the '73 falcons, it started in november of '72. as coach ray berkley worked over his strategies, he formed, through his extensive searches, a championship team in more ways than one. as coach burnie drake watched his defense shape up to perfection, coach carroll mullins scanned his offense to roundout rough edges.

the coaches were not the only interested parties. co-captains pat smith and neil fournier were always there to add that special touch of experience. neil was also the first falcon to rush for 1000 yards.

a group of men known as the dirty half-dozen were recognized for their special contributions to the season. they were voted onto the all-conference team. they are as follows; pat smith and dennis dunlap on defense and neil fournier, "bo" mcfalls, david connelly, and lee ruth on offense. charlie phillips received an honorable mention.

but ultimately, the credit goes to the team as a whole; coaches, players, and managers. what a contribution to the SPIRIT OF '74 . . . . . .

a look into the future

while coach berkley's pride and joy breezed its way through the season to a championship, an unglorified group of young men proved themselves worthy of the name falcon. as they tackled their new and rough schedule, they never gave up the hope of someday gaining the long due recognition they so well deserved. when their journey came to an end, sixteen men and their coaches, mr. norman link and mr. bill worley, crossed the line and captured their own blue ridge championship.

this team deserves special credit due to shortage of personnel and the helpful and creditable coaching of bill worley. a great start toward the SPIRIT of '76.

muscle men and mat maids

this year's squad of muscle-men was led by their SPIRIT-ed captain, spud plemmons, into the fight for fame and self-satisfaction. since basketball and wrestling are both going on at the same time, the wrestlers don't receive the credit they deserve. this year marked the first time that wrestlers have ever had cheerleaders of their own. captain of the mat maids was debbie haynes. the only serious injury of the season was marty riddle's broken toe but that was only to keep from doing monkey rolls.

when the new cheerleading squad was chosen last spring, they were chosen on their ability to cheer and arouse SPIRIT. ten seniors and juniors found themselves in the midst of an action-packed football season.

susan nelson was one of the talented young ladies to be taken aboard the falcon train. susan always manages to do the cheers a little different, but if you ask her why, she'll tell you that all the others are doing it wrong. captains of the team were kathy orr and terri dunlap.

s-u-p-e-r that's what falcons really are

along with a winning team, there's always a winning group of cheerleaders behind them. these young ladies led their junior falcons throughout the season. the captain was lillian cantrell. elaine jones was voted most SPIRITed by the annual staff and the pictures show why.

behind the scene

although they usually go unnoticed, managers are a vital part of every team. many times they arrive early and leave late from practices. SPIRIT is the highlight with the managers.

statisticians don't have it easy either. it's tough keeping up with everything all of the time.

the senior class of 1974 will go down in the history of west as being one of the most SPIRIT-ed classes. under the leadership of debbie davis, this year's president, the seniors succeeded in carrying out powder puff, the homecoming festivities and dance, and blessed florida with a visit. after many visits to the office, debbie finally got permission to paint the steps outside of z-building. each senior signed their names and they will remain there until they wear away. the senior class vice-president is pat smith. something new and useful came about this year in the senior class government. a senior council was formed, which consisted of three representives from the senior homerooms. the council discussed and decided on matters, instead of having senior class meetings. it has been a great success, because of the co-operation put forth by each of the council members.

on these last two pages of the senior section is a recap of the year. it is mostly pictures of the senior class trip, after all it was the highlight of the year for the seniors. as a whole, the class of 74' was not known for their ability of working together, but those few dedicated workers put in countless hours to complete the homecoming project. what's new pussycat took third place, when judged the night of homecoming. with all of the senior shortcomings, the SPIRIT of west high will remain in their hearts forever.

JUNIORS

being junior class president has its advantages. just ask rhymer how many samples she gets from companies wanting the community's money. on the other hand, she tends to run into a lot of obstacles concerning class activities. one obstacle she hit during a class activity is clearly illustrated on the opposite page. that's the SPIRIT rhymer!

sherrie, with an "e", chapin, shows determination (look at the great action shot!) both in athletics and as vice-prez of the juniors. at least with that running ability, if she makes a mistake she can run and everybody will have a tough time catching her.

"step right up and get your whhs, unc, clemson, or ncsu calendars right now! for only $3.00 you get a fantabulous calendar complete with the months of the upcoming year and the football schedule." creativity and SPIRIT was prominent in the sales pitch of the juniors. the sales of calendars was their major fund-raising project for jr-sr.

does janie evans drink? only cokes of course! secretaries of junior classes only do things like take minutes at meetings, and help the prez work out little problems. the drinking is limited to saturday night. then, what SPIRIT!

in most cases, the purpose of a fund raising project is to raise money. somehow the sophomores never seemed to make enough to make ends meet - which brings us to the point of carolyn hazel, juli allen, and anitra jones, who were the hard workers in the car wash held in october. later in the year, a raffle was held for a tape player, and many sophomores helped support their class and keep up the SPIRIT by selling tickets.

look at this SPIRITed bunch! lori looks shocked. elaine has chapped lips. juli is ready for roundball. mcintyre is susie sweet. kathy looks shy. robin appears normal, but is robin normal? scott looks like he's straight out of boot camp. linda looks short. virginia brings up the rear. although hazel is the president of the class, and leader of the group, she had sense enough to stay out of the picture.

seriously, these people make up the sophomore class homeroom representatives who report to their homerooms about sophomore class activities.

the girl on crutches can be identified as susan duckett. she was injured in one of those "safe" and "calm" powder puff football games. in this picture she seems to have consoled herself to her injury. that's the SPIRIT susan!

and what is going on in that typing class? terri brittain doesn't even have a typewriter!

a sure way to get your SPIRIT aroused is to take advanced composition with o'shields. in this little class, one learns to write big, big term papers with (supposedly) no mistakes. boy, did we fool her! and then there are the plays put on by the acting and stagecraft classes! mythology, mass media, black literature and vocabulary were just a few of the other classes offered.

these "ancient" faces reflect the many years of history being taught. everyone's SPIRIT was aroused with the romance of the constitution with mrs. stakias, and wasn't it a shock to find out adolf hitler's real name was adolf schicklgruber? heil schicklgruber!

now in using the theorem corresponding parts of congruent triangles congruent, or cpctc for short, we must first prove the triangles to be congruent which is to say they must be equilateral, equiangular, or a regular polygon, which of course has all sides and angles congruent. drop in to one of mr. brysons classes and you'll hear people talking around in circles this way. now if you don't want to talk in circles, we could talk in a straight line, but everyone knows a line is infinite and cannot be defined . . .

band & chorus

"practice makes perfect" certainly stands true when applied to our band and chorus. many long and hard hours went into making our band and chorus one of the best around. through all the hard work, they, like all the students of west henderson, never lost their SPIRIT.

behind the scenes

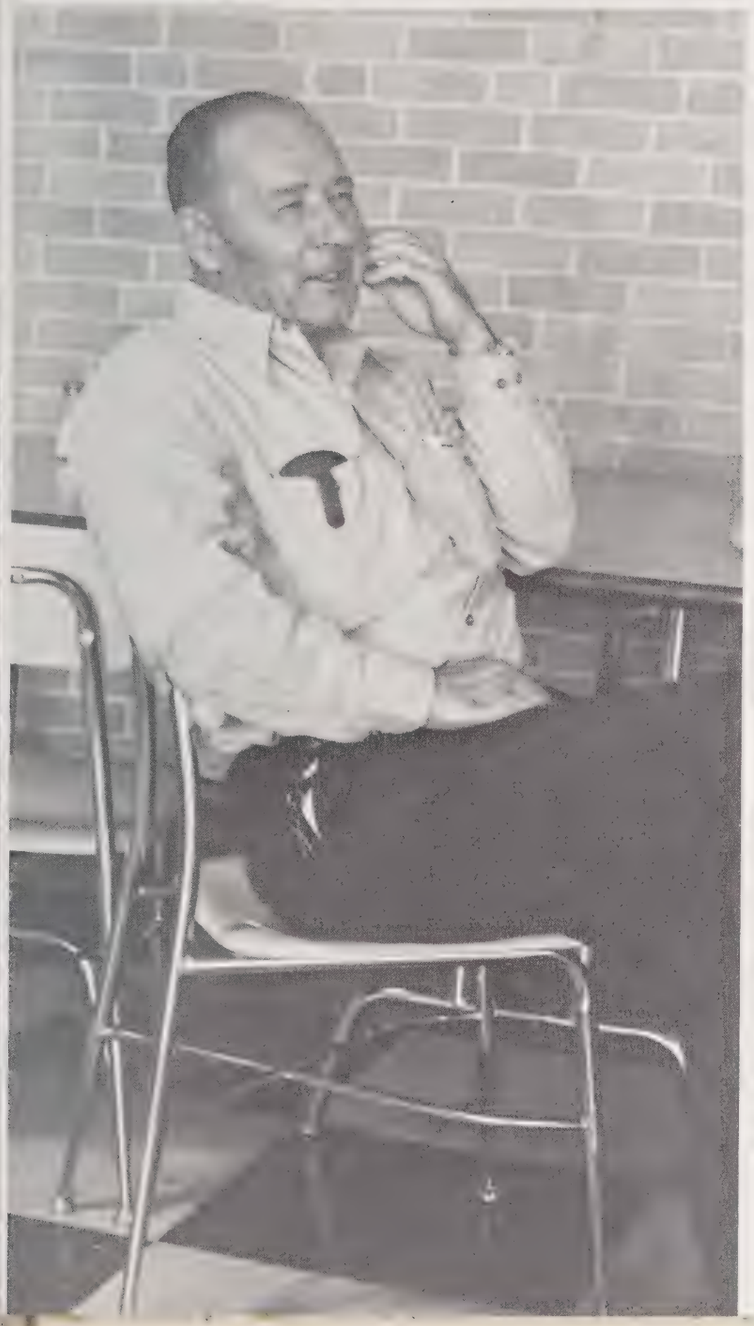
our janitor, fred dotson, can always depend on a steady job here at west keeping our campus clean.

there are also five cheerful ladies to serve us lunch each day. they are frances goode, manager, beulah phillips, bessie whitaker, evelyn barnette, and daisy lively.

and we can't forget our student bus drivers who make over 180 trips to west each year. whew!



another year has passed. you have just glanced at some of the memories of this year. by far the most important event this year was the victory over polk central, october 19, for the blue ridge conference championship. i believe at that game, while sitting on splintered benches at a school at the bottom of the mountains, several hundred falcons suddenly had faith in west henderson for the first time in quite a while. we belonged to a school that was finally going somewhere.

and it showed up not just in sports. everybody now had a sense of belonging. people cared not only about west, but about each other, which probably made the greatest difference.

we became a part of west, west became a part of us. but more important, we became a part of each other. and now, for some 150 seniors, we must grow apart from each other. the person who said leaving the people you love behind, hurts - was right. but we'll never forget west, the friends we've made, the experiences we've shared together. and when we look back in five or ten years, we'll see it as just a part of becoming an adult. deep inside, i think some of us had rather remain a teenager.

as a senior, i hope next year's falcons keep and add to the SPIRIT and pride you've got now. if you do, you've got it made.

WHERE DO JOBS COME FROM?

A first-class fortune teller, very likely couldn't answer that question for you — how are jobs created? — as you go out into the world to seek your fortune. It's a subject fit for an entire course in economics.

But whether you'll be looking for a new job after school this year . . . or later, after additional education and training . . . we'd submit to you that basically, new jobs come from *profits!

The economist Peter Drucker, writing in Readers Digest has put it plainly:

"If we hope to succeed in creating new jobs for young people during the years just ahead, the country will have to find a great deal of new capital somewhere. This is particularly true of the jobs we will need the most — jobs for highly educated people . . . . The greater the skill or knowledge demanded by a job, the greater the capital investment needed to make it possible."

Make sense? Everyone knows that a computer operator can't work without a computer. And sophisticated computers can cost from hundreds of thousands of dollars to millions of dollars! By the same token, a doctor can't function effectively without a substantial investment in a nearby hospital . . . not to mention the costly equipment in his own office and in the labs on which he depends.

As Peter Drucker sums it up: we cannot hope to get new capital — the money that jobs are made from — by drawing on fat in the economy, or by "reducing excess profits*" as some suggest. "New capital" — to create and sustain jobs — "can come from only two sources: savings and profit."

*in the case of General Electric, profits average just about five cents on each sales dollar.

we extend our sincerest congratulations. we think you deserve admiration for earning a high school diploma. not just for getting passing marks, but also for deciding to stick to it. the determination you showed in earning your diploma is going to mean a great deal, especially to employers. doors that stay closed to drop-outs will be opened to you. including ours.
